

Your mission, should you choose to accept it . . .

THE GREAT MANHATTAN SCAVENGER HUNT

Participating in the Great Manhattan Scavenger Hunt will require teams to risk their lives out in the Big Apple, running through the ferocious streets of Manhattan.

Groups will rack their brains to solve the most impossible clues, attempt to take photographs amongst people with the worst attitude in the world, and collect souvenirs that could self-destruct at any moment. Does your team have what it takes?

Teams will be equipped with:

- 1) A full set of briefing materials outlining details of the mission (including a set of photo clues, trivia questions and collectables)
- 2) A map to help plan your escape route
- 3) 1 state-of-the-art Deltax67 Photo Imaging System (disguised as a digital camera)

Sample Photo Clue:

This hotel shares it's name with a tasty salad. Get a photo of your team in the lobby.

Sample Trivia Question:

What is the highest numerical rating in a Zagats Restaurant Guide?

Sample Collectable:

Bring back a playbill from a current Broadway show or musical.

After teams have completed their mission and documented their exploits, Paint The Town Red will upload the photographs and create a slideshow for everyone to see. A great finish to an exciting mission!

Good luck . . . this page will self destruct in 30 seconds.
